With a record passenger list and a record cargo the T. K. K. steamer Tenyo Maru arrived in port four minutes after noon today. The vessel was off Koko Head at 8:45, but it was not until the time stated that she had berthed. The delay was due, according to the ship's officers, to the fact Saturday night by Chief Detective that only one doctor went on board to examine the 1067 souls on board game of craps. All were liberated There were 146 cabin passengers, of whom 56 are for Hongkong, 42 each for Yokohama and Shanghai, four for ball being forfeited in the other cases. Among the Matsui party, besides the Baron are: Baroness Mitsui, Miss Mitsul, K. Kurasawa, secretary to the baron; Dr. T. Dan, the general counselor of the Mitsul corporations; S. Sakka, Doctor Dan's secretary; N. Sakurai, secretary; Dr. Shingu, Miss A. Hisada, governess, and Miss A. Kitishima, maid.

The. Hon. R. Nakashoji, vice president of the Board of Communications, at Tokyo, is also a passenger on the Tenyo, and he is accompanied by secretary H. Suzumura and Architect S. chida, also of the board.

Mayor Ozaki, accompanied by his wife, are also returning to Japan by the Tenyo. Mr. Ozaki is the Mayor of Tokyo and is well thought of by foreigners in Japan by reason of his reform tendencies.

P. Grace manager of the Singapore branch of the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China, is returning to his post, together with his wife.

Mrs., Wm. H. Gray, Jr., and Miss Thayer, relatives of U.S. Minister Calhoun at Peking, are on the Tenyo proceeding on a visit to the orient.

H. O. Beatty, one of the lumber kings of California, and son of Judge Beatty, is making a business trip to the Orient. He is a prominent polo and golf player. L. Spero, a journalist who is mak-
